

I am an avid XM listener and cannot understand why the NAB would want to interfere. XM is something the industry should embrace. Without XM, I would convert entirely to CDs in my car. XM supports radio listening, it does not detract from it. Please halt any efforts to limit XM radio's availability to Americans. Further, I am such a fan of XM RADIO--that I pay for 3 subscriptions... what more support does the NAB want for Radio Listening?!?